Welcome to the latest eNewsletter

The above image, taken by Mr Hundermark during the latest flood, shows the height of the River Severn on the Boat Club. The last flood this year, I hope!

There are lots of stories and notices in this edition, and more to follow in future weeks.

Happy reading,

Global Social Leaders need YOU!

On Thursday 12th March 2.00 pm - 4.00 pm, together with Age UK Shropshire, Telford and Wrekin, our Global Social Leaders will be hosting a fabulous tea party in Kingsland Hall. Members of the community are warmly invited to an afternoon tea with games, sing-a-long, and music from the school band.

The Global Social Leaders have enjoyed working together to plan this event and hope to welcome a large number of guests for a most enjoyable afternoon.

Places can be booked via email: gslsociety@shrewsbury.org.uk. Please do share the details or this poster with anyone who might like to come along.

Last Few Tickets Remaining...

The 'Once in a Blue Moon Ball' on Friday 27th March in the Allington Hall has only a few tickets remaining. Please email Dawn Dunn at dldunn@shrewsbury.org.uk to obtain your tickets.

ISI Regulatory Compliance Inspection January 2020

A Regulatory Compliance Inspection was carried out by the Independent Schools Inspectorate on 22nd January and 23rd January 2020.

The resulting report confirms that the School was found to be fully compliant and with no actions required following the inspection.
