

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

15 May 2020

E Garavini (G, IV)

For her excellent approach to the RSSBC Club Challenges with impressive commitment and performance during the remote training period.

B Gardiner (SH, III)

For his excellent engagement with the Third Form themed week 'Who Do You Think You Are?' and his impressive song-writing efforts for inclusion in the Music at Home concert series.

I Morris (MSH, V)

For her sustained involvement during the Easter holidays and beyond volunteering at the Isle Court nursing home helping residents stay in touch with their families and providing much-appreciated companionship to them at this time of lockdown.

F Northam (SH, LVI)

For his focus and perseverance in English in the midst of tough circumstances during the remote period.

O Thomassen (S, UVI)

For his impressive research project in Physics on Rossby Waves and his continued engagement with the academic programme.

F Tyler (I, LVI)

For his diligence to rowing training during the remote period and his continued commitment to the Boat Club.

H Webster (Rb, IV)

For his positive approach to the remote period including delivering his MacEachran competition talk 'When Life Gives You Lemons' for the Radbrook community as part of their daily callover.

K Woodman (M, IV)

For her outstanding achievement in gaining a place in the National Youth Theatre of Great Britain.

Floreat flōrɪt (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish