

---

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

---

15 May 2020

T Bright (Ch, IV)

For his determination and persistence in History and engaging so positively with his academic work during the remote period.

L Evans (PH, UVI)

For his charity cycling efforts as part of the 2.6 Challenge and his impressive engagement with the remote cricket programme

T Jackson (R, UVI)

For his positive approach to the remote period, throwing himself into a wide variety of co-curricular areas and taking a leading role in delivering the debating activity.

M Mason-Hornby (G, UVI)

For her continued excellence in Spanish during the remote period and her sustained efforts as part of the core team leading the Eco Committee

Za Mohamed (MSH, UVI)

For her impressive research project in Physics on Mechanobiology and her continued engagement with the academic programme.

M Nuijten (MSH, UVI)

For her impressive charity efforts climbing the equivalent height of Mount Kenya to raise funds for the people of Gilgil.

B Potter (Rb, III)

For his self-determination and motivation during the remote period, working diligently and effectively in the academic programme.

L Xu (Ch, LVI)

For his diligence and engagement with academic work in History going above and beyond in his approach.

Floreat floreat (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish