

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

2 October 2020

Ed B (Rt, UVI)

For his editorship of 'The peace of trees that all night whisper nothings', a new anthology / dendrology of Salopian verse celebrating in a cross-curricular way the beauties of the schools' natural and social history

Kaitlyn C (G, UVI)

*For completing a University of Bath Pharmaceutical course during the summer holidays, achieving an A

Imogen J (MSH, UVI)

For her excellent contribution to the virtual Open Day Pupil Q&A

Viktoria K (G, UVI)

For throwing herself into rehearsals for the House play, her first venture into acting at school

Alice L (MSH, IV)

For her excellent contribution to the virtual Open Day Pupil Q&A

Tolly N (PH, III)

For his resilience at the New Entrants' Concert, providing a wonderful example of the value of perseverance

Ethan P (I, V)

For his contributions to the musical life of the school and enhancing the chapel programme with his performances

Luke W (SH, IV)

For his excellent contribution to the virtual Open Day Pupil Q&A

Tabitha W (G, LVI)

For creating and curating her Nature-themed soiree as part of her EPQ project showcasing a wonderful range of song, poetry and artwork

Floreat flōrɪt (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish